Rezolv was established to lead the energy transition in Central and South Eastern Europe. This is a region which has historically relied on fossil fuels for most of its energy needs. There is therefore an urgent need to accelerate the transition to clean power, both to meet climate targets and to tackle air pollution, which continues to be a ...

When Rezolv decided to invest in the project in 2022, it was selected for its proximity to the Carpathian Mountains (12km to the north-west), which give rise to higher wind yields. To maximise the potential for power generation, the project will benefit from the latest technology, including best-in-class turbines and high voltage (400 kV ...

Rezolv Energy was launched 18 months ago by Actis, a leading global investor in sustainable infrastructure, and already has well over 2GW of clean energy being prepared for construction in South Eastern Europe. As well as the VIFOR wind farm, projects include Dama Solar in western Romania which, at 1,044MW, will be the largest solar plant ...

The Chairman of the Czech Energy Regulatory Authority (ERÚ) recently estimated the investment needed into the transmission and distribution system at 271 billion crowns (EUR10.7 billion) by 2030. Not all of that is directly related to the development of green energy, but it is an indication of the kind of money that will need to be found.

Rezolv aims to build a multi-gigawatt portfolio of wind, solar and energy storage. This will help companies and countries across the region meet their energy needs in response to energy security challenges and climate policies. It will take renewable energy projects from late-stage development through construction and into long-term operation.
