Texas company provides power-related products and services to 20 states and 4.3 million residents. By Blake Ashley Frino-Gerl. Vistra Corporation, the owners of the property on which the defunct Morro Bay Power Plant resides, is still set on building a facility to provide battery storage if all the necessary steps pass.

The project is being proposed by Morro Bay Power Company LLC (Vistra) (Project Applicant). The Project Applicant seeks a Coastal Development Permit (CDP) and a Conditional Use Permit (CUP) from the City of Morro Bay, California (City) to construct, operate, and maintain a Battery Energy Storage System (BESS) and associated infrastructure.

The Morro Bay Energy Storage Facility would be used to absorb excess renewable generation, mainly solar, and put it on to the grid at times when it was most needed. The project would "revitalise" an existing natural gas power plant site, occupying 22 acres of the 107 acre complex with roughly 180,000 lithium-ion batteries housed in three ...

The market for battery energy storage is estimated to grow to $10.84bn in 2026. The fall in battery technology prices and the increasing need for grid stability are just two reasons GlobalData have predicted for this growth, with the integration of renewable power holding significant sway over the power market.
