Solar panels aren't the only rooftop solar game in town anymore. Say hello to the integrated solar shingle. Sized like conventional roofing materials, solar shingles use the same cells found in some panel modules but the shingles are deck-mounted -- meaning they lie side-by-side with your normal roofing, instead of on a rack that sits on top of the roof.

Future engineers should know about different solar panel types. Monocrystalline and polycrystalline panels use silicon wafers. But, thin-film solar panels use other materials, like CdTe, a-Si, and CIGS. Each type has its own benefits and uses. Setting up a solar system can be expensive at first. You need to buy solar panels, batteries, and ...
