

Sweden's new incentive program is similar to one in place in Germany that saw 19,000 home solar and battery storage systems installed since it began. That program has recently been extended through 2108. Whether Sweden can duplicate that success remains to be seen. "Energy storage on this scale is new for Sweden." says Andreas Gustafson.

3 · Solar Battery Storage. Solar battery storage captures and stores solar energy for use when the sun isn't shining or during power outages. Here's a closer look: Components: Solar panels, batteries (like lithium-ion for residential use), an inverter, and sometimes a charge controller for optimal energy management.

The battery can store the extra energy produced from solar panels during the day to avoid using electricity at a more expensive rate. The peak time-of-use (TOU) rates can be double the price compared to off-peak rates. In such a scenario, a solar battery storage system can come in handy for using electricity without having to pay such a high price.

SENS has been actively securing land across Sweden for new power projects. Earlier this month, it announced several other land lease deals, including for a 50-MW BESS and a solar farm of up to 25 MW. The company's pipeline of projects with secured land leases currently tops 330 MW of battery and 75 MW of solar capacity.
